By taking a competency-based approach to education, our platform, when used in conjunction with the British International curriculum (or Cambridge Curriculum), allows learners to study at the level at which they will excel. Although there are recommended ages at which different education levels should be taken, this approach means the levels are flexible enough to accommodate each learner's unique competence.

With the combination of our Project-Based Learning, the learners will obtain knowledge through hands on activities 10 hours a week over a 12-week period. Learners acquire key future skills by using Design thinking to solve real world problems and learn key soft skills. Learners completing this program will receive a Mastery Transcript issued by the Mastery Transcript Consortium and recognized by top universities.
